

XRAY MILLENIUM RC FACTORY

XRAY has earned the world-renowned reputation for making premium, no compromise, highest-quality and highest-performance luxury racing cars. All of XRAY's resources, efforts, and involvement goes towards continuous research and development to bring the most professional and innovative RC cars to the radio-control car enthusiast. All XRAY products are 100% designed, developed, and manufactured in-house in Slovakia, Europe.

XRAY dedicates itself to design, develop, and manufacture new and innovative RC products and provide the very best support and service to all customers worldwide to make XRAY the RC car market leader.

XRAY Millenium RC Factory facts:

- operation starts in 2005
- the largest RC manufacturing plant solely dedicated for luxury RC cars
- the facility is of size of soccer stadium!
- the new facility includes everything necessary to design, develop, and produce the largest line of RC cars in-house
- production capacity of tens of thousands of RC parts per month
- dozens of the most modern German and Swiss CNC high-capacity, high-precision manufacturing machines
- more than 100 employees who are specially skilled and trained for RC car production

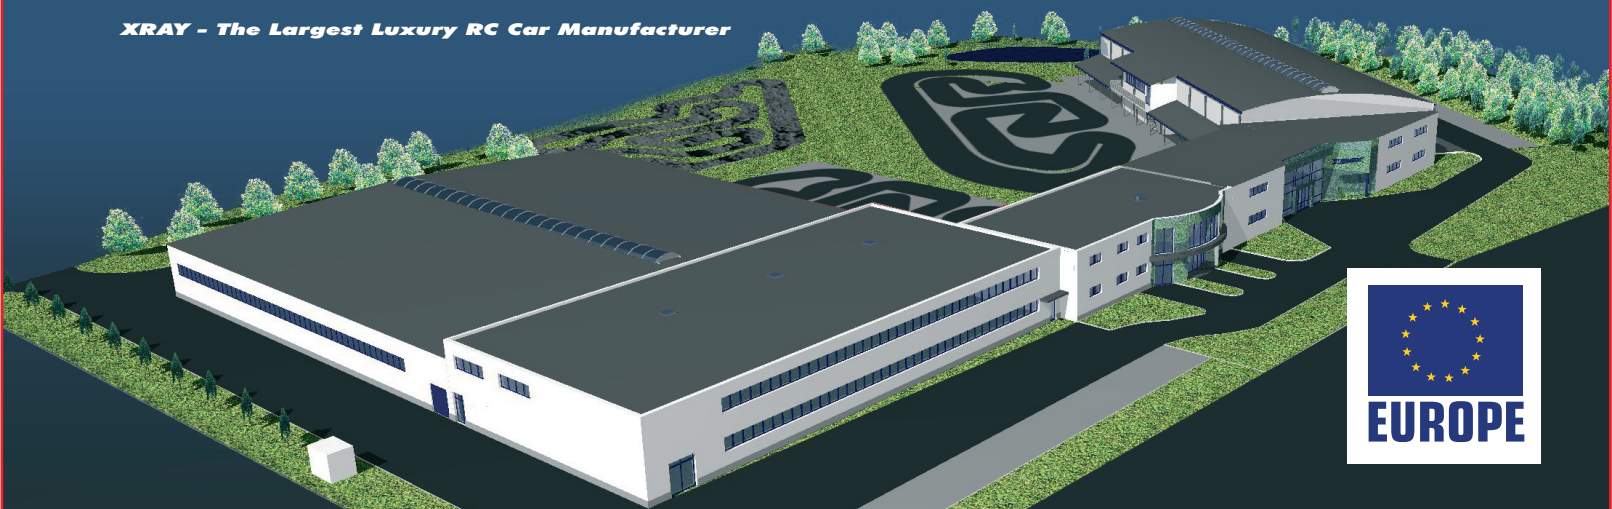

Xray Millenium RC Factory features:

- large assembly line and packaging department to export products quickly
- extensive stock of all XRAY products guarantees 24-hour delivery with an astonishing 99% fill in rate of available XRAY products
- the large factory is strategically broken down into key sectors designed to make production clean and fast
- in-house R&D, marketing, sales, desktop publishing and accounting department.
- two indoor racing tracks for prototype testing
- one of the largest asphalt indoor tracks can be turned into carpet indoor track for electric touring car testing
- outdoor asphalt track for testing and developing
- outdoor off-road track for off-road cars testing and racing

XRAY products and strategy have gained the faith and trust not only of customers, but also of the government of the European Union. XRAY has applied for co-financing of the new XRAY Millenium RC Factory thanks its huge contribution to the industry, and its proven track record of extensive engineering excellence, know-how, and professional dedication.

XRAY - The Largest Luxury RC Car Manufacturer

XRAY - Building a future based on trust and proven with performance!