

XRAY T3

GLUING COUNTERSUNK HOLES IN THE CHASSIS

We strongly recommend that you apply CA glue to the countersunk holes in the chassis where the front aluminum arm holders are mounted. Apply a small drop of CA glue to each countersunk hole and spread the glue around the countersunk surface; this will help to strengthen the hole and prevent damage from a hard crash.